ADD new:

taking into account

~~a) the Preamble to the Statement and Vision of the WSIS+10 High-Level Event to review implementation of the WSIS outcomes (Geneva, 2014), §8: “The evolution of the information society over the past 10 years is contributing towards, inter alia, the development of knowledge societies around the world that are based on principles of freedom of expression, quality education for all, universal and non-discriminatory access to information and knowledge, and respect for cultural and linguistic diversity and cultural heritage. When mentioning the information society, we also refer to the above-mentioned evolution and to the vision of inclusive knowledge societies”; (See above, Sudan come back with text)~~

b) the importance of telecommunications/information and communication technology (ICT) for political, economic, social and cultural progress,

taking into account also

a) that ITU plays an essential role in the promotion of global development of telecommunications/ICTs and ICT applications, within the mandate of ITU, specifically with respect to Action Lines C2, C5 and C6 of the Tunis Agenda, in addition to participating in the implementation of other action lines, particularly Action Lines C7 and C8 of the Tunis Agenda;

b) that, to this end, the Union coordinates efforts aimed at securing harmonious development of telecommunication/ICT facilities, permitting non-discriminatory access to these facilities and to modern telecommunication services and applications;

c) that this access will help to bridge the digital divide,

taking into account further

the need to draw up proposals on issues determining a worldwide strategy for development of telecommunications/ICTs and ICT applications, within the mandate of ITU, and to facilitate the mobilization of the necessary resources to that end,

ARB/79A2/3: Proposal by Arab States

ADD new:

emphasizing

that fair and equitable e-participation of Member States in ITU meetings will bring considerable benefits by facilitating and widening the scope for participation in ITU work and meetings, (Agreed: wordings from Res.167, Busan 2014)

noting

a) that modern telecommunication/ICT facilities, services and applications are established, in the main, on the basis of recommendations of the ITU Telecommunication Standardization Sector (ITU-T) and the ITU Radiocommunication Sector (ITU-R);

b) that ITU-T and ITU-R recommendations are the result of the collective efforts of all those taking part in the standardization process within ITU and are adopted by consensus by the members of the Union;

c) that limitations on the access to telecommunication/ICT facilities, services and applications on which national telecommunication development depends and which are established on the basis of ITU-T and ITU-R recommendations constitute an obstacle to the harmonious development and compatibility of telecommunications worldwide;

~~f) — the strategic plan for the Union set out in Resolution 71 (Rev. Guadalajara, 2010) of this conference,~~ that full harmonization of telecommunication networks is impossible unless all countries participating in the work of the Union, without exception, have non-discriminatory access to new telecommunication technologies and modern telecommunication/ICT facilities, services and related applications, including applied research and transfer of technology, on mutually agreed terms, without prejudice to national regulations and international commitments within the competence of other international organizations, the need to ensure the access of Member States to international telecommunication services (ok)

recognizing

resolves

1 to continue, within the mandate of ITU, fulfilling the need to promote [ensure] (UK consult) non-discriminatory access to telecommunication and information technologies, facilities, services and related applications, including applied research and transfer of technology, on mutually agreed terms, established on the basis of ITU-T and ITU-R recommendations;

2 that ITU should facilitate non-discriminatory access to telecommunication and information technologies, facilities, services and applications established on the basis of ITU-T and ITU-R recommendations;

3 that ITU should encourage to the greatest extent possible cooperation among the members of the Union on the question of non-discriminatory access to telecommunication and information technologies, facilities, services and applications established on the basis of ITU-T and ITU-R recommendations with a view to satisfying user demand for modern telecommunication/ICT services and applications,

DRAFT NEW RESOLUTION [AFCP-2]

Non-discriminatory access to online Services and Applications used by ITU

The Plenipotentiary Conference of the International Telecommunication Union (Busan, 2014), recalling

- a) the outcomes of the Geneva (2003) and Tunis (2005) phases of the World Summit on the Information Society;
- b) Resolution 64 (Rev. Guadalajara, 2010) of the Plenipotentiary Conference on non-discriminatory access to modern telecommunication/information and communication technology facilities and services;
- c) Resolution 20 (Rev. Hyderabad, 2010) on non-discriminatory access to modern telecommunication/ICT facilities, services and related applications;
- d) that ITRs 2012 recognized the right of access as Human Rights,

taking into account

the importance of telecommunications/information and communication technology (ICT) for increasing the participation of developing countries in ITU events,

taking into account also

- a) that ITU plays an essential role in the promotion of online applications and tools and makes sure that all ITU material and services are available equally to all member states;
- b) that, to this end, the Union coordinates efforts aimed at securing harmonious development of telecommunication/ICT facilities, permitting non-discriminatory access to these facilities and to modern telecommunication services and applications;
- c) that this access will help to bridge the digital divide,

the need to make a global commitment to foster equitable access to online information and services, noting

- a) that modern telecommunication/ICT facilities, services and applications are established, in the main, on the basis of recommendations of the ITU Radiocommunication Sector (ITU-R), ITU Telecommunication Standardization Sector (ITU-T) and the ITU Development Sector (ITU-D);
- b) that limitations on the access to telecommunication/ICT facilities, services and applications on which national telecommunication development depends and which are established on the basis of ITU-T, ITU-R and ITU-D recommendations constitute an obstacle to the harmonious development and compatibility of telecommunications worldwide,

recognizing

that full harmonization of telecommunication networks is not possible unless all member countries of the Union, without exception, have non-discriminatory access to new telecommunication technologies and modern telecommunication/ICT facilities, services and related applications, without prejudice to national regulations, traditions and customs, and national sovereignty,

resolves

- 1 that ITU should facilitate non-discriminatory access to telecommunication and information technologies, facilities, services and applications established on the basis of ITU-T and ITU-R recommendations;
- 2 that ITU should encourage to the greatest extent possible cooperation among the members of the Union on the question of non-discriminatory access to telecommunication and information technologies, facilities, services and applications established on the basis of ITU-T and ITU-R recommendations with a view to satisfying user demand for modern telecommunication/ICT services and applications,

Instructs the Secretary General of the ITU

- 1 to prepare and publish the list of online services and applications that are not accessible as complains received from ITU member states;
- 2 to take the appropriate measures to adopt non- discriminatory access to ITU online services and materials;
- 3 to coordinate with other UN agencies to foster the usage of available telecommunication/ICT tools and facilities by all peoples;
- 4 to liaise with other organizations in order to adopt telecommunication/ICT facilities that can be accessed to all without restrictions and discrimination due to ethnic, geographical, political or other factors;
- 5 to transmit the text of this resolution to the Secretary-General of the United Nations with a view to bringing to the attention of the world community the viewpoint of ITU, as a specialized agency of the United Nations, on the issue of non-discriminatory access to new telecommunication and information technologies and modern telecommunication/ICT services and related applications, within the mandate of ITU, being an important factor for world technological progress as a factor that may help to bridge the digital divide;
- 6 within their respective spheres of competence, to implement this resolution and achieve its goals, invites Member States of the Union

- 1 to adopt national policies that promote regional traffic exchange and discourage discriminatory access;
- 2 to cooperate with one another in the implementation of this resolution.
