

- b) Prior to examining each theme in detail, sponsors of proposals relating to that theme will be invited to make a short presentation of the substance of their proposals; speakers will be requested to be as brief as possible (maximum three minutes), and to refrain from going into the details or the background of the proposal. Individual national proposals will only be discussed if supported by at least one other delegation when they come to being considered (see GR 90).
- c) It may be necessary to set up ad hoc groups within the Committee to deal with particular subjects and report back to the Committee in the manner decided and within the time period set by it. However, to the extent possible, the establishment of ad hoc groups will be kept to a minimum.
