  - E-employment
  - E-environment
  - E-agriculture
  - E-science
- f)* Paragraph 14 of the WSIS Plan of Action, which notes that ICT applications can support sustainable development, in the fields of public administration, business, education and training, health, employment, environment, agriculture and science within the framework of national e-strategies;

recalling further

- a)* Resolution 136 (Rev. Guadalajara, 2010) of the Plenipotentiary Conference, on the use of telecommunications/information and communication technologies for monitoring and management in emergency and disaster situations for early warning, prevention, mitigation and relief;
- b)* Resolution 182 (Guadalajara, 2010) of the Plenipotentiary Conference, on the role of telecommunications/information and communication technologies in regards to climate change and protection of the environment;
- c)* Resolution 183 (Guadalajara, 2010) of the Plenipotentiary Conference, on the telecommunication/ICT applications for e-health,

noting

- a) that the Objective D.2 of the Strategic Plan for the Union for 2016–2019 aims to foster an enabling environment for ICT development and foster the development of telecommunication/ICT networks as well as relevant applications and services;
- b) that ITU, along with UNESCO, established the Broadband Commission for Digital Development in 2010 in its efforts to strengthen the activities aimed at the expansion of broadband and to give more weight to the utilization of ICT applications;
- c) that ITU has played a key role in the implementation of the outcomes of WSIS for both network and e-applications, the role of a mediator/facilitator for Information and Communication;
- d) infrastructure (Action Line C2) and the role of a co-facilitator in the more active implementation of ICT Applications (Action Line C7),

recognizing

- a) that the use of telecommunications/ICT can improve competitiveness and productivity, as well as increase efficiencies and bring benefits in all aspects of our daily life;
- b) that the benefits of deploying telecommunications networks will be fully realized through the introduction and active utilization of various ICT applications and services;
- c) that in order to facilitate the deployment of telecommunications networks and the expansion of ICT applications, cooperation among various respective players is necessary at various levels;
- d) that in order to enable people to access and use ICT applications, it is important to develop an approach adapted to local needs,

resolves to instruct the Council

- 1 to consider the Report of the Secretary General referred to in instruct the Secretary-General 4 below;
- 2 to consider ways and means to further explore this topic, as appropriate,

instructs the Secretary-General

- 1 to continue monitoring the progress and achievements of goals set by the UN MDGs, WSIS and the Broadband Commission;
- 2 to actively participate in discussions relating to the Post-2015 Development Agenda in order for the Union to play a pivotal role in enabling greater use of e-applications;
- 3 to continue consultations with all relevant organizations and institutions in Information and Communication Technology (ICT) sectors as well as non-ICT sectors in order to explore ways to cooperate in promoting the expansion and active utilization of e-applications in various areas;
- 4 to report to the Council on the progress of activities related to this Resolution,

instructs the Director of the Telecommunication Development Bureau

- 1 to further elaborate the ICT Development Index (IDI) to reflect the availability and utilization of ICT applications and their social and economic impact;

2 to enhance awareness of e-applications' role and benefits regarding socioeconomic development;

3 to work with the Director of the Telecommunication Standardization Bureau (TSB), and Director of the Radiocommunication Bureau (BR), as appropriate, to encourage cooperation with other relevant organizations in the development of best practices relating to the network infrastructure that enables the use of a wide range of e-applications,

invites Member States, Sector Members, Associates and Academia

1 to promote the introduction of e-applications to support sustainable development, in the fields of public administration, business, education and training, health, employment, environment, agriculture, manufacturing industry and science, among others, within the framework of national e-strategies;

2 to consider how institutional frameworks can support the utilization of e-applications;

3 to promote policy measures that will encourage the adoption of e-applications within their countries;

4 to explore measures for greater cooperation and coordination with other Member States, Sector Members and various entities such as international organizations, development institutes, industries, and other relevant organizations in order to strengthen the roles and activities in relation with ICT applications.
